

Nebraska Association of Bed and Breakfast
The Only Inspected and Approved B&Bs in Nebraska

August 27, 2007

Dear Guests and Aspiring Innkeepers:

Greetings from the Nebraska Association of Bed & Breakfast (NABB) officers and Board members! October is just around the corner, and we have been busy planning for the upcoming NABB Fall Conference in Columbus. The date of the conference is Tuesday, October 16, 2007, at the New World Inn & Conference Center in Columbus. We are pleased to announce that our keynote speaker is Jay Karen, President & CEO of the Professional Association of Innkeepers International (PAII). We would like to extend an invitation to you to attend.

We are once again holding our conference in conjunction with the Nebraska Travel Conference, October 17 and 18. You can make reservations by contacting the hotel at 800-433-1492 or 402-564-1492. To qualify for the group rate, you should mention that you are with the Nebraska Travel Conference. The discounted rate is $59 per night plus tax. We will start the day at 8:00 a.m. with coffee and muffins, and you can browse the vendor tables during that time.

If you are planning to come to Columbus on Monday, October 15, the NABB Board is hosting the Aspiring Innkeepers Workshop and Wine and Cheese Social at Traditions Inn B&B (2905 14th St., Columbus). Registration begins at 3:00 p.m. with the workshop beginning at 3:30 p.m., and the Social will start at 7:00 p.m. Association resources available to you will be Jay Karen, President & CEO of PAII and our keynote speaker for Tuesday's conference; Mary Coleman, NABB President; and Connie Larrington, NABB Vice President. There is no charge for either event. We encourage you to come to the Workshop to learn more about running a B&B, and then stay for the Wine and Cheese Social to network with Jay Karen, NABB members, and other aspiring innkeepers. Please indicate whether or not you will attend on the enclosed registration form.

We encourage you to join us for our Fall Conference. It is an excellent opportunity to visit with other B&B owners, learn from nationally recognized speakers, find answers to questions that you may have, visit our information booths, and learn about issues that we, as an industry, are facing. A registration form is enclosed. Registration deadline is October 1, 2007. We look forward to seeing you in Columbus in October!
